Item 4: Other Business Activities

A. If Everett Frampton is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Everett Frampton is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Everett Frampton’s other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

Mr. Frampton is a licensed insurance agent. He may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation he may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

2. If Everett Frampton receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Everett Frampton receives. We must explain that this practice gives Everett Frampton an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If Everett Frampton is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Everett Frampton's income or involve a substantial amount of Everett Frampton's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Everett Frampton's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Frampton works part time as a bartender.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Everett Frampton for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Everett frampton's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

Item 6: Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Everett Frampton, including how we monitor the advice Everett Frampton provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Everett Frampton's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.
